

Kim Rolon

Kim Rolon is an artist who lives on the Big Island of Hawaii. After raising her family she was able to pursue her passion of painting. Her inspiration comes from the beauty and culture that surrounds her. You will mostly see ocean related themes by Kim. Whether she is swimming, snorkeling or sitting on the shore contemplating her next painting, the ocean continues to be her muse.

Kim works with acrylics and oils. She likes to experiment with different mediums and techniques to express her interpretation of what she sees. She finds that acrylics allow the most versatility to experiment and try new techniques and designs. She is always looking for new inspiration and techniques to express her passion of painting.

Kim's newest design is her "On the Shore Collection". It is her expression of her love of the ocean. She has paintings of various sizes. She has also incorporated this design into jewelry and ornaments. A multiple of mediums are used in the creation of this design.
